

Mascot

Paudie the Basset Hound was adopted by the field school students at Bective Abbey in July 2009. A daily visitor to the site, Paudie demonstrated a remarkable eye and excellent observation skills. Unfortunately, as testified in the accompanying photo, Paudie tended to use these skills to acquire other people's food rather than to record archaeological features or finds!